SPECIAL CONVENTION ISSUE!

Anderson, South Carolina
21-24 July 2010

REPORT OF THE 115TH ANNUAL SONS OF CONFEDERATE VETERANS REUNION & CONVENTION!

Compatriots,

The SCV Convention, held in Anderson, South Carolina, has concluded. For those Arizona Compatriots who could not attend, the following report is offered so you may be informed of the events taking place there.

Wednesday, 21 July

Little was scheduled for today. The vendors began their set up at 8:00 AM. Registration and credentials begins at 12:00. There is a General Executive Council meeting scheduled for this afternoon. The Arizona Division Adjutant attended that meeting.

Arizona Camps represented here this year are Captain Hunter's Arizona Rangers Camp 1202 and Colonel Sherod Hunter Camp

1525 and Confederate Secret Service Camp 1710. Division officers present are Commander Montgomery and Division Adjutant Curt Tipton.

Commander Montgomery and Adjutant Tipton registered today and obtained the credentials for Camps 1202 and 1710. Commander Morris, Commander Perkins and Com-patriot Payne will arrive to-morrow.

After lunch, Adjutant Tipton attended the GEC meeting. Here are the highlights.

1.. Quorum established

2.. Minutes of 13 March GEC meeting accepted as corrected

3.. Minutes of 24 March GEC teleconference accepted

4.. 3 financial proposals presented and considered by the GEC. One was a proposal for $2500.00 for a Camp in Texas to hold a Living History event/seminar (passed); Request from the KY division for GHQ to "cosign" for a loan to establish SCV logo license plates if it is necessary to have a co-signer (passed); Request from Europe Camp 1612 for $6675.00 to restore the grave of Captain Thomas Jefferson Paine, CSN. (did not pass--referred back to Camp 1612 for clarification)

5.. A new overseas Camp, the William Kenyon CSMC Camp of Brisbane, Australia, was chartered. The GEC voted to assign the Camp to the Army of Trans-Mississippi.

(Executive Director Sewell informed me there was no expense money for the ATM Field Rep to visit the Brisbane Camp! :-(

6.. The GEC removed the requirement that Camps or individuals pay for Real Son medals and certificates. Henceforth, they will be provided to Real Sons at no charge.

7.. Executive Director Ben Sewell discussed the budget, current investment funds and membership numbers. Details will be presented to the general convention.

8.. Executive Director Sewell discussed the property recently bequeathed to the SCV in Atlanta. It is proposed to sell part of it and to clean up and restore the rest. The part to be retained and restored contains two historical markers commemorating the 4800 Confederates who died in battle on this property during the Siege of Atlanta.

9.. The GEC approved a measure whereby anyone who joins the SCV's Sesquicentennial Society this year (ending at the end of this convention) will receive premier seating at the grand opening of the Confederate Museum at Elm Springs.

10.. The Jefferson Davis Library at Beauvoir will open 3 June 2011.

11.. A new fund raising proposal for the Confederate Museum was presented and will go before the general convention. There will be three levels (Stonewall, Lee and Confederate Cabinet Officer). The levels are for donations of $1,000.00, $5,000.00 and $10,000.00 respectively. Rewards will be provided to donors to include names on a special wall in the museum and other incentives.

12.. The new Commander-in-Chief will name a new member to the investment committee by the end of the convention.

13.. By direction of the CinC, the charter of the Buffalo Guards Camp 1975 in Buffalo, NY, has been suspended and any members in good standing transferred to the MG William McCain Camp 584. The GEC approved this action.

14.. A report was given on the 2011 national convention to be held in Montgomery, AL. The date has been moved up to 14-16 July due to scheduling conflicts with the host hotel.

15.. The GEC voted on its recommendations for the proposed amendments to the SCV constitution. Rather than write them all out, I will number them. Please refer to the last issue of The Confederate Veteran for the exact wording.

Division Commander Richard Montgomery
Division Adjutant Curt Tipton
Camp 1202 Commander
Bobby Morris
Camp 1525 Commander
Robert
Perkins

The opening ceremony began with the presentation of the colors. Your humble servant was pleased to carry the Arizona Division colors in the procession.

Greetings were given by the following dignitaries.

- 1.. His Honor Terrence Roberts, Mayor of Anderson
- 2.. Mr. Rusty Burns, Anderson County Administrator
- 3.. Mr. Tom Allen, Anderson County Councilman
- 4.. Sheriff John Skipper, Anderson County Sheriff
- 5.. State Representative and Chairman of the House Ways and Means Committee Dan Cooper
- 6.. State Senator Billy O'Dell
- 7.. South Carolina Attorney General Henry McMasters
- 8.. President of the SC OCR (didn't catch her name)

9.. SUVCW National Chief of Staff Bill Garrett

10.. President of the SC Sons of the American Revolution Mark Anthony Mr. Anthony presented the SAR's Silver Good Citizenship Award to CinC McMichael and Executive Director Sewell.

11.. Mrs. Kelly Chase, Treasurer-General of the UDC

12.. Real Sons James Brown of Arizona and H.V. Booth of Georgia were introduced to a standing ovation.

13.. "Lt. Gen. Wade Hampton" welcomed the delegates to South Carolina and introduced "President Jefferson Davis".

A 12 pounder was fired, signaling the opening of the convention. CinC McMichael assumed the chair. A quorum was declared and the roll of the GEC was called.

Executive Director Sewell presented the budget

A 25 years service medal was presented to Past CinC Ed Deason.

The suspension of the Buffalo Guards Camp 1975's charter, enacted by the CinC and approved by the GEC was approved by the general convention.

The sesquicentennial program was explained (as reported yesterday from the GEC meeting.)

The Convention Planning Committee reported that the 2013 Convention, with the approval of the general convention, would be held in Vicksburg, Mississippi on 24-27 July 2013. The proposal was approved.

The Committee reported that the 2012 Convention will be held in Murfreesboro, Tennessee as approved at last year's national convention.

The Committee reported that the 2011 Convention will be held in Montgomery, Alabama but that the dates had to be changed to 14-16 July 2011. The proposed date change was approved by the general convention.

CinC McMichael reported that there is a new recruiting website at www.1800mysouth.com and at www.1800mydixie.com. Check it out! Refer potential members to this site!

CinC McMichael also reiterated the need for members (and non-members) to use www.scv.we-care.com for their online shopping. Each of the more than 700 merchants participating (includes travel sites, hotel sites, Amazon.com, etc) gives the SCV a donation of a percentage of what you spend using the site. Please do so!

CinC McMichael stated that there will be an online training program available soon for SCV officers at the Camp, Brigade and Division levels. More details will be provided.

CinC McMichael and

Lt. CinC Givens were interviewed (for more than 7 hours) by the British Broadcasting Company (BBC) for a program about the "Life and Mythology of the 16th President". The program will air on BBC America next April.

Lt. CinC Givens gave a report outlining his recruiting efforts. The highlight was ongoing negotiations with the National Rifle Association (NRA) for the SCV to become an NRA sponsor with ads in the NRA's two magazines and a presence and NRA national conventions.

CinC McMichael recessed the session. Many delegates attended the Awards luncheon. The following awards were presented to AZ Division members.

presented at the Arizona Division Convention.

Friday, 23 July

Today's session began with the Forrest Cavalry Corps Breakfast. About 80 members of the FCC were in attendance. The speaker was Dr. Michael Bryant, author of the book, Nathan Bedford Forrest's Escort and Staff. He gave a very interesting talk on the recruitment, organization, exploits and after the war activities of the Escort Troop.

The business session began with greetings from the South Carolina Commissioner of Agriculture. His theme was the value of agriculture in the US economy today and in the Southern economy in the 19th century. Tis the red earth of Tara, Katy Scarlett!

Miss Kristine Stonehill, an alumna of the Sam Davis Youth Camp and a member of the UDC, gave a presentation on the Sam Davis Youth Camp.

Compatriot Trip Wilson, Chairman of the JROTC Award Committee, gave a presentation on the H.L. Hunley JROTC Award. The Arizona Division was complimented for its participation in the program.

CinC McMichael outlined a donation program for the proposed Confederate Museum at Elm Springs. The following levels of donations were established:

Stonewall Jackson

$1,000.00 to $4,999.00
Robert E. Lee $5,000.00 to $9,999.00

Presidential Cabinet
$10,000.00 or greater
Recognition includes the engraving of the donor's name on a wall in the museum. Other forms of recognition will be added. Anyone can contribute--donors do not have to be SCV members. Donations may be made in installments. One donor has already contributed at the Presidential Cabinet level.

The delegates debated and voted on the proposed amendments to the SCV Constitution and Standing Orders. The results are:

1.. To prohibit a sitting CinC and the GEC from refusing to hear an appeal by a member referred by the disciplinary committee for action by the GEC. (Article 13.7) WITHDRAWN

2.. To add the word strongly before the word condemns in Article 2.1 concerning the misuse of Confederate flags and symbols. FAILED

3.. To allow the enrollment of male descendants between the ages of birth and 12 years to be Life Members. The young man would be a Cadet until achieving the age of 12 and at that time would become a full member. The current membership requirements would still be in force. (Article 3.6) PASSED

4.. To strike the words except by a two thirds (2/3) vote of the General Executive Council upon recommendation of the Commander-in-Chief referring to the reinstatement of expelled members (Article 3.3.2). FAILED

5.. To add the words And half that amount again for applicants 80 years of age or older in Article 3.6.1. This would make the Life Membership fee for those 80 and older $187.50. PASSED

6.. Amendment to Standing Order 6.12 concerning the convention planning committee. FAILED

7.. Add the word Marine to Standing Order 10.4 to read ...any Confederate soldier, sailor, Marine, or statesman...The proposal was amended to read any member of the Confederate armed services or statesmen...PASSED Please refer to the last issue of The Confederate Veteran for the full wording of the proposed amendments.

The CinC gave a thank you and special recognition to Past CinC Chris Sullivan.

The Commanders of the Army of Northern Virginia, the Army of Tennessee and the Army of Trans-Mississippi gave their reports.

The session was recessed until tomorrow at 9:45 AM. Army meetings will be held at 8:00 AM. Tomorrow will be for election of officers.

Saturday, 24 July

Today's session began with the Army of Trans-Mississippi meeting. After a short opening ceremony, Commander Block of the Texas Division gave a short report on the Texas Confederate Monument. Details are available in the last Confederate Veteran. Texas Division Lt. Commander Mark Vogel gave a report on the "Road to Secession" seminar scheduled for December. The Louisiana Division Commander (can't recall his name) gave a report on the Louisiana monument recently installed on the battlefield at Mansfield.

Elections were held for ATM officers. The results are: Commander Danny Honnoll of

Arkansas

Councilman Todd Owens of Louisiana

The results of the elections in the other two departments were:

ANV

Commander Frank Ernest of Virginia

Councilman Gene Hogan of South Carolina

AOT

Commander--TIE. AOT members voted again after the main business session was adjourned. Results will be posted later

Councilman Gary McCluny --can't recall his state

The department meetings were adjourned. The main business session was opened.

Five resolutions were presented. Full text will be available either on the SCV website or in the next Confederate Veteran.

1. A resolution condemning the misuse of Confederate symbols and flags: PASSED
2. A resolution supporting the Sam Davis Youth Camp and asking for donations. The resolution was amended on the floor to specify that any donated funds collected would be deposited with GHQ and specifically labeled for use of the Sam Davis Youth Camp. PASSED

3. A resolution stating the SCV's disapproval of the actions of the Governor of Louisiana in refusing to proclaim April as Confederate History Month. PASSED

4. A resolution complimenting and thanking the Convention Host Camp for their hard work. PASSED

5. A resolution expressing the Confederation's appreciation for CinC McMichael and all his work. PASSED

Nominations were opened for Commander-in-Chief. The nominee was:

Michael Givens.

Compatriot Givens was elected by Acclamation as Commander-in-Chief elect.

Nominations were opened for Lt. Commander-in-Chief. Nominees were:

Paul Gramling of Louisiana

Kelly Barrow of Georgia

The results of the voting were:

Paul Gramling 573 votes

Kelly Barrow 721 votes

Kelly Barrow is the Lt. Commander-in Chief elect.

The business session concluded with speeches by the newly elected CinC and Lt. CinC, Past CinC Ron Wilson and Immediate Past CinC Chuck McMichael. Chaplain-in-Chief Cecil Fayard gave a benediction. The assembly sang Dixie then gathered at the flag pole in front of the Civic Center for a group photo and the retiring of the colors.

At 6:00 PM, the Commander-in-Chief's reception was held followed by the banquet. During the banquet, the Confederation's two highest awards, The Robert E. Lee Gold Medal and the Jefferson Davis Chalice were presented. A list of recipients will appear in the next issue of The Confederate Veteran.

Following the banquet, the Debutantes for 2010 were presented. After the presentation, the young ladies and their escorts opened the ball with a waltz. This traditional first dance was followed by the Grand March. Music for the ball was provided by Unreconstructed, a period string band.

Next year's 116th Reunion and Convention will be held in Montgomery, Alabama, the "Cradle of the Confederacy" on 14-16 July 2011. Pre-registration will be available soon on the SCV website at www.scv.org.

Congratulations to the Manse Jolly Camp 6 for a great event!
